Hi Rebecca, Patty and Molly,

Please let me know if you have any final edits to the briefing document. Please note the new language Rebecca added to the intro. I hope to circulate this shortly as the final version. Thanks,

I don't need to review the paper before you send.

Patty/Molly – if we go forward with the group as outlined below would you be comfortable walking the senior leadership through the paper? The end goal is the letter so I would prefer the NEPA leads guide us through the paper quickly and set the stage for any final discussions we'll have on the letter itself (to be distributed on Friday)

To the extent we can we can address Rob's comments in the intro let's do that.

I will go in and clean up final edits to the briefing paper in an hour. If you want to review the document before it's finalized, please let me know so we can coordinate before I circulate it.

This is what I heard from the group regarding preferred attendees. Andrew please let us know if you hear any direction from Chris.
